

MELBOURNE LAW SCHOOL

Australia's first, Australia's global

2009 Student Published Research Prize

Entry Form

2009 Student Published Research Prize Guidelines

Please consult the Guidelines before submitting your entry:

<http://research.law.unimelb.edu.au/go/publications/student-published-research-prize>

The University of Melbourne Privacy Statement

The statement may be viewed at www.unimelb.edu.au/unisec/privacy/studentinfo.html

Part A: Category of entry

I am entering in the following category of the Student Published Research Prize:

LLB/JD section

Postgraduate section

Part B: Applicant Details

Name:
Student number:
Telephone:
Postal address:
Email:

If employed at Melbourne Law School, please note nature of employment here:

--

Subject and / or Course enrolled in at time the work was written:

--

Supervisor/s (where relevant) or teacher:

Part C: Publication Details

Title of your work

Title of journal, book or monograph in which it is published

Volume number or date of publication

If the work is 'in press' at the time of submission, evidence indicating acceptance of the work must be provided and full information submitted after publication

Details of co-author(s) (if applicable)

Please provide names of co-authors and their contribution (%) to the publication.

Is any academic staff member(s) of the Melbourne Law School familiar with this work?

Yes No

If 'Yes', please provide details:

Part D: Preparing the Submission and Verification Evidence

Please provide two (2) copies of the published version of the work to the Office for Research (Law) by the closing date, accompanied by the following evidence.

If the work is 'in press' at the time of submission, evidence indicating acceptance of the work must be provided and full information submitted after publication

✓ Please check boxes. Incomplete or inaccurate submissions may be ruled ineligible.

→ A. If the work is an article, case note or comment in a journal:

Please submit copied pages of the journal showing:

- Affiliation with The University of Melbourne (see guidelines)
- All authors of the journal article
- All dates referring to copyright, publications, printing and distribution of the journal
- Title, issue and volume of the journal
- Title and page numbers of the journal article
- Publisher, place of publication and ISSN of the journal
- Proof of peer review for the journal (if applicable)

→ B. If the work is a book chapter:

Please submit copied pages of the book showing

- Affiliation with The University of Melbourne (see guidelines)
- All authors of the book chapter
- Title and Editor(s) of the book
- All dates referring to copyright, publications, printing and distribution of the book
- Publisher, place of publication and ISBN of the book
- Preface and Introduction of the book
- Entire table of contents of the book

→ C. If the work is a monograph:

Please submit copied pages showing:

- Affiliation with The University of Melbourne (see guidelines)
- All authors of the monograph
- Title and Editor(s) of the monograph
- All dates referring to copyright, publications, printing and distribution of the monograph
- Publisher, place of publication and ISBN (if applicable)
- Table of contents
- Preface and introduction

→ D. If the work is in electronic form, please provide link and printed copies with relevant information as above

→ E. A list of all your 2009 publications and citation details

While only one publication can be considered for the Student Published Research Prize, please attach a list of all your 2009 publications (and their citations) to your entry. Details of these publications will be included in both the 2009 Melbourne Law School Research Report and the 2009 Higher Education Research Data Collection, submitted to the Australian Government's Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR).

Part E: Declaration

I confirm that the published work is my own except in so far as otherwise acknowledged in the work itself. I have read the Student Published Research Prize Guidelines and agree to abide by the decision of the Student Published Research Prize Committee. I give permission for the Melbourne Law School to include this publication in the Research Report and other reporting submissions (including the DEEWR Publications Collection).

Signature of applicant	Date
------------------------	------

Submission requirements

Entries must be received no later than Friday, 22 January 2010

→ Please submit the completed application form, two (2) copies of the work and all required attachments to:

Office for Research (Law)
Room GM 28
Melbourne Law School
The University of Melbourne VIC 3010

Further information

Should you have any queries as to any part of the application process please contact:

Office for Research (Law)
Telephone: (03) 8344 8946
Facsimile: (03) 8344 4601
Email: law-research@unimelb.edu.au